Damar Training: please update
your contact details

Hi Client,

We've been in touch with you about apprenticeships in the past. However, before sending you any more updates, and to be compliant with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), we want to confirm that we've got the right details for you.

We would appreciate it if you could take a moment to confirm your contact details and communication preferences.

Damar is an apprenticeship provider with one simple ambition - for our apprentices, their employers and our colleagues to achieve their potential. We specialise in business and professional services apprenticeships in areas such as management, law, accountancy, data protection, administration, travel and customer service. We also help employers to recruit apprentices.

We deal with the paperwork and deliver the training. Government funding covers all or most of the cost.
